

Kayne Chu

(647) 972-9298

k33chu@uwaterloo.ca

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Fluent in English, French, and Cantonese
- Proficient with Microsoft Word and Excel
- Exceptional organization and perseverance
- Engineering Machine shop certified
- Experienced in AutoCAD and SolidWorks
- Knowledgeable on Dimensioning and GD&T communication
- Competent with Robot C, C++ and Java programming

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Principal's list recipient (June 2019)
- Health and Wellness Specialist High Skills Major (June 2019)
- 4 years French award recipient (2015-2019)

PERSONAL PROJECTS

- Toy Design Project (Oct 2019 – Dec 2019)
- 3D Printed Cellphone Stand (Dec 2019)

INTERESTS & HOBBIES

- Computer Programming
- Skateboarding
- Travelling

EDUCATION

University of Waterloo
BASc – Mechanical Engineering

EXPERIENCES

Private Math Tutor, Self-Employed

Dec 2018 – June 2019

- Developed creative thinking by teaching advanced and unfamiliar concepts to a student
- Gained problem solving skills by creating new methods of teaching
- Greatly improved time management by balancing studies with preparing work for student

Habitat for Humanity ReStore Volunteer

July 2018 - Oct 2018

- Demonstrated professionalism through interactions with customers and employees
- Portrayed teamwork by working with other volunteers to unload deliveries, accept donations, etc.
- Displayed leadership skills by designating responsibilities for other volunteers when employees were occupied

Foundation for Student Science and Technology Online Research Co-op

May 2018 – Aug 2018

- Improved research skills through the study of carbon dioxide flooding from professional sources
- Portrayed responsibility and perseverance through the completion of an independent research project
- Developed writing skills through the process of creating a scientific paper